Legislation Title: A RESOLUTION endorsing Seattle's bid to join the UNESCO Creative Cities Network as a City of Literature.

Summary of the Legislation: Declares the City Council and Mayor's support of Seattle's application to be designated a City of Literature within the Creative Cities Network of UNESCO (United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization).

Background: Seattle author Mr. Ryan Boudinot is organizing Seattle's application and has enlisted the support of the Seattle Public Library as well as national literary organizations such as the American Library Association, American Booksellers Association, Academy of American Poets, and Associated Writing Programs for Seattle's bid. He's also convinced Nancy Pearl, the only librarian to ever be turned into an action figure, to agree to sponsor an International Writers Exchange program in support of Seattle becoming a City of Literature. This resolution affirms the City of Seattle's support for Mr. Boudinot's application efforts.
